

FINDING THE RIGHT TALENT

The process of finding talented graduates and undergraduates with the skills you need for first jobs or internships can be difficult and risky. With Talented Europe you can access a Europe-wide database of students who have been verified as highly talented online or via mobile app. Those high quality students with the talents and skills you have identified will have access to your opportunities, wherever in Europe you operate.

How do we achieve this?

The young graduates have an online profile with references from professors who have evaluated their skills. This innovative concept clarifies how the talented graduate shall provide a value to the company. In this way, apart from having the curriculum vitae, you have another source of reliable information, which improves the selection process.

Since Talented Europe operates on mobile devices, today's natural choice for young people, response time is very fast.

Talented Europe offers a showcase of the best students in Europe.

"A simple idea which links employers to students. The meeting point of excellence."
