

BUILDING BRIDGES

We know that finding a job can be stressful. With Talented Europe, in addition to offering your CV and motivation letter to companies, you have a profile on the platform where your professors are able to evaluate you and write comments about your skills. This way, you offer companies around Europe extra value information about yourself so that YOU are the one they choose.

Would you like to be part of the elite student sector in Europe? Thousands of companies have direct access to your contact information, and the better marks you get the greater opportunities you have to get a nice job.

That is what Talented Europe offers. A showcase with a ranking of the best students in Europe.

“A simple idea which links employers to students. The meeting point of excellence”
